Not Independent

Because NextGen Financial Group Pty Ltd receives commissions from life insurance companies, neither it nor its Advisers are independent, impartial or unbiased. The Corporations Act states that if a licensee receives commissions from a product issuer it cannot claim to be independent, impartial or unbiased.

NextGen Financial Group Pty Ltd is a member of the Association of Independently Owned Financial Planners (AIOFP).

PART 1 – FINANCIAL SERVICES GUIDE

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is issued by NextGen Financial Group Pty Ltd ABN 12 055 622 967 AFSL 240938, referred to as NextGen, “we”, “us”, and “our”. There are two parts to this FSG. Please make sure that you read both parts before making any decision based on our advice. This document is Part one and Part two is the Adviser’s Profile, which includes information about your financial adviser (“adviser”), who is one of our Authorised Representatives. Any reference to an adviser will include the details of the adviser’s company if they are part of a corporate entity. If the adviser’s profile is not attached please ask the adviser for this profile or contact NextGen Head Office whose contact details are in the next section. Your adviser is authorised by us to distribute this FSG.

WHAT IS A FINANCIAL SERVICES GUIDE (FSG)

The Financial Services Guide (FSG) is an important document that is designed to help you decide whether to use the financial services offered. The main purpose of the Financial Services Guide (FSG) is to give you an overview of the financial services that are being offered and it provides you with the following information:

- About us;
- What kinds of financial services we are authorised to provide to you;
- The process we follow to provide financial services;
- How we, our Authorised Representatives (and any other relevant persons) are remunerated;
- Are there any of our associations or relationships that might influence the financial services we offer?
- How we collect, use and disclose the information you provide to us
- Our complaints handling procedures and external dispute resolution procedures including how you can access them.

The terms Representative, Authorised Representative, Corporate Authorised Representative, and Advice Provider means that a person, or entity, is authorised to represent a business that holds an Australian Financial Services (AFS) licence. NextGen is the holder of an AFS Licence and is therefore responsible for the financial services provided, including the distribution of this Financial Services Guide (FSG).

As there are many different titles in the marketplace describing such authorised representatives and advice providers throughout this document we are describing them as Adviser(s) or Your Adviser(s).

ABOUT US

NextGen is part of NextGen Financial Group Holdings Pty Ltd. NextGen Financial Group Holdings Pty Ltd is the Australian financial services arm of Genesis Financial Inc.

Your Adviser may only be authorised to provide advice in some of the above areas. Please refer to the Adviser Profile (Part 2 of this FSG) which sets out those areas your Adviser is authorised to provide you with advice and recommendations.

Please note that only products approved by NextGen may be recommended by the adviser.

If you hold a specific product which is under a class of product covered by the NextGen licensee, your adviser may review and advise you on this product even though it is not on our Approved Product List (APL). However, your Adviser will not be able to deal in, write or arrange further business on this product if it is not on our:

- APL;
- is a product on which they are not authorised to provide personal advice. The Adviser Profile (Part two of this FSG) outlines the classes of financial products on which they can provide advice.

Your adviser may also conduct separate business activities such as accounting, mortgage advice and other services not provided under our licence. We are only responsible for the financial products and services described in this FSG and on our APL. From 1 July 2014, new regulation requires your financial adviser to declare whether they are a registered (tax) adviser and the tax (financial) advice service they are authorised to provide.

THE PROCESS WE FOLLOW TO PROVIDE FINANCIAL SERVICES

Your adviser acts as our Authorised Representative when providing personal advice to you and therefore we are responsible for any advice given. Your adviser is under an obligation to act in your best interests in relation to any personal advice provided to you (known as the 'best interest duty').

Your adviser is authorised by us to give you personal advice, but in order for them to do so, you need to provide them with information about your needs, goals and objectives. If you choose not to provide your adviser with this information, any advice they provide may not be appropriate to your needs.

PROVIDING YOUR ADVISER WITH INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO BUY OR SELL FINANCIAL PRODUCTS.

You may specify how you would like to give your adviser instructions, for example, in writing, fax or other written means. However, in all instances your adviser will require your instructions to be in writing. For your own protection, you should not:

- sign any blank forms or documents
- appoint any financial adviser to act as your attorney or authorised signatory
- nominate any financial adviser to receive your statements without you also receiving a copy, or
- give your adviser unclear or misleading instructions or false information.

Other documents that you may receive in addition to the FSG and Adviser Profile, your financial adviser may provide you with the following documents:

- A Statement of Advice (SoA) or Record of Advice (RoA).
Before your adviser provides you with any personal financial product or financial service advice (personal advice), they will collect information about you, your objectives, financial situation and needs. The SoA will set out the advice and the basis upon which it is given. You may then decide whether or not to act on it. It will also set out information about our remuneration and your adviser's remuneration and disclose any associations or relationships which might reasonably be expected to influence them when providing the advice. Any subsequent personal advice that is provided to you may, if it is in relation to advice which has already been provided to you previously in a SoA, will be documented in either a further SoA or a RoA, provided there has not been a significant change in your personal circumstances or the basis upon which the initial advice was provided. Copies of all advice documents will be retained on your client file and you may request a copy by contacting your adviser.
- A Product Disclosure Statement (PDS).
If a particular financial product (other than securities) is recommended by your adviser you must also be provided with a PDS issued by the product issuer. The PDS contains information about the benefits, risks and other features of the product, which will enable you to make an informed decision about whether to purchase the product.

HOW WE, OUR ADVISERS (AND OTHER RELEVANT PERSONS) ARE REMUNERATED

Both we, and your adviser receive remuneration from:

- service and advice fees paid by you;
- Remuneration and other payments paid by product providers;
- Commission / Brokerage
- other benefits.

All Fees and Remunerations must be paid to us, the Financial Services Licensee. We will then forward on to your adviser their share of the fee or remuneration.

No Fee or Remuneration is allowed to be paid to your Adviser directly or by way of direct debt to your adviser's account.

Service and advice fees paid by you

Your adviser will discuss and explain our fee structure with you before we provide you with any financial advisory services. The types of fees you can be charged are listed below. Also, you may be charged a combination, or part of, any of these fees:

- Fee for advice - your adviser may charge fees for the preparation and implementation of the advice. These fees will be based on your individual circumstances, the complexity of your situation and the time it takes to prepare personal financial advice for you.
- Ongoing advice fee - your adviser may charge a fee to provide ongoing portfolio reviews and/or for the provision of ongoing services. This fee will be either a set amount, or based on the amount of funds under our advice, and/or the time involved in reviewing your portfolio, e.g. an hourly rate. Your adviser will discuss these fees with you prior to giving you the advice.
- General Advice / Execution Only instructions
Where "General Advice" or an "Execution Only" instruction is provided, you may request particulars of remuneration payable to us and to your adviser, directly from your adviser. Please refer to the Adviser Profile attached for information about any portion of these fees that we may retain and please ask your adviser, or us, if you require further information about any of the fees and charges that you pay.

Payment methods

Our fees are either invoiced to you directly, or deducted from your investments, or a combination of these methods. Where it is debited from your investments, it is normally referred to as the Adviser Service Fee.

In most instances, you will be able to select the method of payment that suits you best. Your Adviser will discuss and agree the method of payment with you before providing you with any advisory services. The specific fees and services that you will pay for, will be set out in your SoA or other advice documents, in your annual fee disclosure statement and or ongoing client service agreement.

Your current options:

- You may choose to be charged a financial planning advice fee that is based on the time spent preparing your SoA (or other advice document) and is dependent on the complexity of the advice; or
- You may enter into an ongoing service agreement with your adviser that covers items such as ongoing advice and portfolio reviews. You and your adviser should discuss the services to be included and the fee that you will pay. The agreed upon advisory services will be set out in the ongoing service agreement provided by your adviser either before, or at the time, you are presented with your SoA.

Risk insurance products

We may receive initial remuneration from the life insurance company for risk insurance products that you purchase and we may also receive ongoing remuneration when you renew your policy. This remuneration is taken out of the premium that you pay and is not a separate charge to you. Applicable risk insurance remunerations are included in the Adviser Profile and will be detailed in your SOA. No remuneration is payable on group insurance policies held within your superannuation that commenced after 1 July 2013. For group insurance policies within superannuation that commenced prior to 1 July 2013, remunerations may be received. Remunerations may also be received in relation to retail insurance policies held within superannuation irrespective of the date of commencement.

Other benefits

Corporate Partnership Program

Product providers listed on the Approved Product List (APL) may be invited to participate in a Corporate Partnership program. The payments received through this program are utilised to provide training and educational opportunities for your adviser. Your adviser does not share directly in these payments, but may benefit indirectly through the provision of subsidised conference attendance and training costs. Your adviser may also receive a range of other benefits, up to $299, in value from product providers such as marketing support or sponsorship, entertainment and conferences, which will be disclosed in your SoA.

ASSOCIATIONS OR RELATIONSHIPS THAT MIGHT INFLUENCE THE SERVICES WE OFFER

CPG Research and Advisory Pty Ltd

CPG is licensed by the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC) to provide investment advice to wholesale investors, AFSL 243361. NextGen Financial Group Pty Ltd uses the services of CPG on our Investment Committee for asset consultancy purposes.

CPG Research & Advisory Pty Limited (CPG) is an asset consultant that works with the provision of research and advisory to AFSL licensees, financial advisers and wholesale investors to develop, implement and manage their investment portfolio/s.

CPG is a leading provider of investment consulting services. Offering comprehensive customised solutions to a broad range of institutional investors such as superannuation funds, insurers, local authorities, government agencies, universities, foundations, not-for-profit organisations and firms that service the wealth management sector. CPG is regarded as Australia's foremost researcher of enhanced cash investment.

CPG is Sydney based and services clients all over Australia, including regional areas. CPG has approximately 60 clients across Australia, and has in excess of $7 billion in funds under advice with more than 50 institutional clients. CPG has 22 years of experience as an advisor and asset consultant. Clients have been as geographically diverse as Bahrain, Kwinana (WA), Kingsborough (TAS), Townsville (QLD) and Auckland (NZ).

CPG does not manage assets or manufacture products for sale to its clients anywhere in the world. As such we are one of the very few truly independent global providers of investment consulting services.

CPG does not issue, distribute or underwrite its own investment funds or securities, does not trade as principal and does not act as a market maker in securities. Recommended Products are drawn from the whole of the market, and CPG is not controlled or influenced by any product provider.

Conflict of interest

A broad range of Conflicts of interests occur in the financial services industry which could have the potential to arise when providing financial services advice to both retail and wholesale clients, however these conflicts can be appropriately addressed by the imposition of proper controls and the appropriate disclosures so that the client can make an informed decision as to whether or not to proceed with the recommended financial advice.

However, the primary obligation of the adviser and the Licensee is to place the interest of the client ahead of their own interest on all occasions. In this way the client can be confident in the integrity of the financial advice they receive.

A full and frank disclosure of how the financial adviser is remunerated, the amount of the fees, the details of the services provided, the split of any fees or remuneration with any associations and the material benefits that may be derived from such associations are provided in any Statement of Advice or Record of Advice documents you will receive.

Where your adviser recommends a product or a service operated by a related company, or arranges for you to participate in an Initial Public Offer (IPO) underwritten by a related company, or an associated business relationship we and your adviser may receive a fee for that product or service.

Other

Within the group of companies there are common directorships. Directors receive an annual remuneration for the provision of their services to the relative company.

Referral arrangements

Your adviser may have referral arrangements or associations with other financial services providers, such as accountants. These are detailed in the Adviser Profile and may be referred to in any advice document provided to you.

HOW WE COLLECT, USE AND DISCLOSE INFORMATION

Your adviser will retain the following personal information on your client file:

1. A record of what you tell your adviser about your objectives, financial situation and needs to enable your adviser to give you personal advice.
2. A copy of all personal advice provided to you. This includes the Statement of Advice or Record of Advice (SoA or RoA) provided to you when you initially received personal advice, as well as any subsequent advice. and
3. Other records relating to the provision of financial services and advice given to you. Ask your adviser if you would like to examine your client file. You can request a copy of any advice document either by phone or in writing. Please allow at least seven working days to process your request.

If your adviser leaves our licence and starts providing financial services under another licensee, your information may be transferred to the new licensee. You will be advised of any such transfer prior to it taking place and you will be given the opportunity to remain with one of our NextGen advisers if you prefer to do so.

Your privacy

We are committed to maintaining the privacy and security of your personal information. Your personal information will be collected for the primary purpose of providing you with the services described in this FSG. If you do not provide the personal information requested, we may be unable to provide you with the financial services you have requested.

We may also need to pass on some of your personal and financial information to third parties such as product providers, only to the extent that the information provided to these third parties is needed in order for a financial product or service to be provided to you.

Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism

As a financial service provider, we have an obligation under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Finance Act 2006 (Cth) to verify your identity and the source of any funds. This means that we will ask you to present identification documents to meet the 100 points assessment such as your passport or driver's licence. We will also retain copies of this information. In connection with providing our services to you, we may disclose information about you to your Authorised Representatives and to other professionals, such as insurance providers, superannuation trustees, product issuers, auditors and our service providers.

We are unlikely to disclose your personal information to overseas recipients. However, any overseas disclosure does not affect our commitment to safeguarding your personal information and we will take reasonable steps to ensure any overseas recipient of your personal information complies with the Australian privacy law. Should your adviser utilise an overseas service provider, these arrangements will be detailed in their Adviser Profile.

Your Privacy

Your personal information will be handled in accordance with our Privacy Policy which outlines how we collect, use, store and disclose your personal information. For more information, including how to access or correct your personal information, or how to complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles, please read our Privacy Policy which can be accessed on our website (<https://www.ngfg.com.au>) or by contacting us on 1300 133 511 or by writing to:

HOW ARE ANY REMUNERATIONS, FEES OR OTHER BENEFITS CALCULATED FOR PROVIDING THE FINANCIAL SERVICES?

The cost of providing a financial product or service to you will depend on the nature and complexity of the advice, financial product and/or service provided. The payment options for the provision of financial services will be discussed with you by your adviser and are as follows:

- Fee for service
- Implementation fees
- Transaction fees
- Brokerage / Commission / Remuneration
- Ongoing service fees
- Or a combination of the above depending on what best suits the client.

Please note that the type of payment option can also depend on the type of product and/or advice implemented, and your adviser will discuss this with you.

The following is the Fee and Brokerage Schedule of John of Jinec Pty Ltd Trading As Wealth Matter$:

Explanation of Fees

All fees and commissions disclosed in this FSG which are attributed to the services provided to you by me are paid to The FinancialLink Group. The FinancialLink Group will pay up to 95 of those fees and commissions to Jinec Pty Ltd (trading as Wealth Matter$) for distribution within the company. The fees and or commissions associated with the service Jinec Pty Ltd provides may include any combination of the fees listed and described below.

Note: Full details of all fees and commissions for financial services may be provided to you broadly in a Terms Of Engagement Agreement before you engage our services but will be specifically detailed in a written Statement of Advice (SoA), or Record of Advice (RoA) and Product Disclosure Statements at the time of receiving any recommendation.

John Atkinson receives a salary as an employee of Jinec Pty Ltd. John Atkinson also controls Jinec Pty Ltd and may also receive a share of the profits in Jinec Pty Ltd or other benefits provided by Jinec Pty Ltd (e.g. Motor Vehicle)

Initial Consultation

Our initial one to one consultation is free of charge as we get to know you, your circumstances, your goals and objectives and whether or not we can add value to your life.

Advice Preparation and Implementation

In the next stage of the process we identify areas of advice that should be considered and outline the costs to engage us for our professional services.

The costs associated with our advice process will be outlined in full.

We will not charge a fee for any work that we have carried out on your behalf unless we have clearly identified the cost of engaging our services.

All fees and commissions payable by you also will be explained to you at the time advice is given and fully detailed in a Statement of Advice, Record of Advice and Product Disclosure Statements (PDS).

Jinec Pty Ltd and/or John Atkinson will not proceed with implementing any advice until such time where we are content with your understanding of how we get remunerated. There is no obligation to proceed until full understanding of any fee charged has been reached.

Fee for Service - Upfront Fees.

For having a personalised financial plan (SoA) prepared and provision for accompanying services provided, Jinec Pty Ltd and John Atkinson's fees range from $990 to $11,000. The actual fee will depend on the complexity of your situation and the time it takes to prepare personal financial advice for you. This fee will be outlined before we proceed with our advice.

If you proceed with our advice, Jinec Pty Ltd and John Atkinson will implement the recommendations provided you are happy with our recommendations.

Ongoing Fees - if you are elect to receive ongoing advice from us.

Our ongoing service is part and parcel of becoming a client of Jinec Pty Ltd and John Atkinson.

Part of the service is to keep you accountable to your goals and guide you towards what matters most in your life.

First year of ongoing fees need to be negotiated by both parties on a win-win basis.

Insurance Commission

Initial Commission

Where insurance products are recommended, the insurance provider may pay The FinancialLink Group an initial commission based on the value of your premium. This may be from 30% up to 125% of your first year premium. The commissions earned will be assessed on a case by case basis depending on the scope and complexity of the advice you will be receiving from Jinec Pty Ltd and John Atkinson.

Ongoing Commission

Where a life insurance policy is renewed, the ongoing commission may range from 0% up to 30% of the value of the renewal premium amount.

Project Management of personal insurance claims

Where a life event occurs for which a person may be insured, Jinec Pty Ltd has systems and processes in place to arrange and coordinate the necessary extensive paperwork and required documentation to act as a facilitator to achieve the best outcome for the client. Our claim project management service fee is up to $5,940 (incl. GST) and will depend on individual circumstances.

Net Assets or Funds under management

As part of our ongoing service and to ensure that we are aligned in our goals, we may charge a 0.2% - 1% Net Asset/Funds Under Management (FUM) fee on a year to year basis for our services in addition to our upfront fees. This fee can be waived during negative years upon adviser & client discretion.

Hourly Fees - if the preference is to pay fees on an hourly basis.

This rate is also applicable to consumer directed tasks.

INITIAL FEES The initial fee charges are rendered as a fee for service prior to any financial services products being implemented.

Initial Consultation: All Options
Fee for each half hour or part thereof.
(This fee may be waived) $165

Written Report
(This fee may be waived) $990

Note: For all Options - If the written report takes more than 3 hours to compile and/or other Special Reports are required, the fee will be increased at the hourly rate of $330, including GST. Should the fee be likely to exceed the amount shown above, you will be advised of the likely increase prior to any extra work being undertaken.

Benefits, Incentives, Interests or Associations.

Neither Jinec Pty Ltd nor John Atkinson hold any shareholding in any company that could be capable or might reasonably be seen to be capable of influencing us in the provision of advice.

Currently, Jinec Pty Ltd and John Atkinson do not receive any soft dollar benefits from and have no material interest in or associations with any issuers of financial products that may be capable or might be reasonably be expected to be capable of influencing my advice

All fees, remuneration, commission and brokerage payments received for the financial services provided are paid to NextGen Financial Group Pty Ltd. NextGen Financial Group Pty Ltd retains a percentage of these payments and forwards the balance to Jinec Pty Ltd. Jinec Pty Ltd then pays John a combination of salary and other benefits for the provision of financial services.
